Help Them Live What They are Learning

Designed for one-on-one discipleship or used in small group discipleship, this unique interactive series gives you the tools to energize effective discipleship ministry. This series enables believers to grow from spiritual infancy to maturity in Christ.

KNOWING WHAT YOU BELIEVE:

The Adventure in Focus (Booklet 2)

Shifting our thoughts from recruiting church members to making disciples, we need to disciple students through a series of basic truths that establish mile markers for their lives, such as: overcoming doubts, baptism, the Bible and the foundational truths about God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. This is the second booklet in the discipleship series by Mike Calhoun, and it will help your students know what they believe. (While supplies last.)

Student Guide TKWYBS $1.99

GROWING IN YOUR WALK:

The Adventure Continues (Booklet 3)

Our challenge is to take students from principle to practice. Our goal is defined very clearly in 2 Timothy, where Paul admonishes us to reproduce reproducers. This booklet will introduce new student believers to six topics to help them begin to focus on the foundation of their faith, including such things as prayer, Bible study, Scripture memory, worship and temptation. Let's embrace the challenge to raise up a new generation of Christians who know what they believe, live what they believe, and can transfer it to others. (While supplies last.)

Leader's Guide TGIYWL $3.99
Student Guide TGIYWS $1.99

SHOWING OTHERS THE WAY:

The Adventure Shared (Booklet 4)

How do you cultivate students who own their faith and are capable of sharing it freely? This book is designed to answer that question and give you some practical steps for discipling your students. Too often students live on "borrowed faith," because they are never challenged to engraft the Word of God into their lives. This book provides you with practical tools to help keep them growing spiritually while sharing their faith on this adventure. (While supplies last.)

Selected Reading Books

What is the Church?
by Mandy Groce & Bill Bell

Although the activities of the church are important, this book begins with who God's people are, recognizing that the church's activity results from its identity. When we call children to be a part of the church, we are calling them to be a part of a gospel people—a believing family, a community of missionaries, servants, learners and worshipers. This book is a call to God's people, no matter how young, to live as the people whom God has made them to be.

GBR118 $4.99

You Go First
by Mercer Mayer

This book follows a young character who always wants to be first. The more he desires to be first, the less his friends and family members enjoy playing with him. As his actions begin to backfire, he learns that letting others go first is better than always being first.

GBR218 $3.99

The Berenstain Bears Do Their Best
(Living Lights version)
by Stan & Jan Berenstain and illustrated by Mike Berenstain

Brother and Sister Bear want to enter the local kite flying contest. The problem is, they don't have a kite! Papa Bear tells them not to worry—he'll make one for them using the special talents God gave him.
